JST, IR, HIST 095-10  History of Isreal

This course examines the history of the State of Israel from the founding of the first modern Jewish settlements in Eretz Israel/Palestine in 1882 through the first decade of the 21st century. It provides a look at the main schools of Zionism thought and introduces a variety of perspectives and narratives on the development of this culturally and ideologically diverse society. Topics studied include: Zionism thought, immigration and settlement, Arabs and Jews in Mandate Palestine, the founding of the state, the impact of the Holocaust on Israel, the Arab-Israeli conflict, the domestic and international impact of the 1967 war, social protest movements, women in Israel, religious-secular conflict and cooperation, integration of immigrants from Ethiopia and the former Soviet Union, post-Zionist critique of Israel, and the transformation of Israel from a developing agrarian society into a hi-tech powerhouse. Professor Fleisch (SS 1) T, R 7:00 - 11:50 p.m.
